

Mizzou MedPrep: Medical Explorations

Benefits of Participation

- Meet students in healthcare programs
- Meet professionals in healthcare careers
- Participate in simulation activities
- Learn about the various health care related fields
- Learn about yourself through personality assessment
- Meet other peers with similar interest

Mizzou MedPrep is a series of workshops designed to assist individuals in exploring healthcare careers and guide those interested in medical school through the application process. Medical Explorations is developed specifically for rising high school juniors and seniors to gain awareness through self-assessment and explore various career opportunities in healthcare.

Session Overview

Session may include the following:

- Introduction & Welcome
- MBTI Assessment Review
- Health Career Student Panel
- Lunch
- Undergraduate Admissions Presentation
- Simulation Activities
- Professionals Panel

Session Information

- This is a two-week online summer workshop which includes a one-day campus workshop.
- The workshop will be online from June 23 – July 7, 2017
- The onsite session will be Friday, July 7, 2017
- Workshop fee - $50
*Financial Assistance is Available
Each participant is required to pay the $25 non-refundable deposit.*
- The workshop is for rising high school juniors and seniors. Exceptions may apply, please contact the coordinator for questions.

Who can I contact with questions? Andrea Simmons, Coordinator - Mizzou MedPrep, simmonsa@health.missouri.edu, 573-884-6375

Where can I find out more information and register? Visit our website for additional information <http://medicine.missouri.edu/medprep/>

